

Section 2. Introductory Information

- A. Introductory letter (limit to one page) telling us about yourself, your ambitions and goals, and your reasons for pursuing the study of the history of the 10th Mountain Division (supporting attachments are acceptable).
- B. Applicant statement must include an outline of that proposed education program, the degree objective, major of study, and proposed thesis, dissertation or capstone project topic. (Include the degree to be earned, department or college, etc.)
- C. Curriculum vitae detailing your personal and academic biography (one page, limited to 10 point font minimum).

Section 3. Field of Study Statement

A statement not to exceed 1000 words concerning the relationship of the Charles A. and Loyola M. Murphy Endowed Scholarship for the Study of Military History to the applicant's field of study and the value to be derived both by the individual and the general public.

Section 4. Review and Submittal

Please review all materials submitted for clarity and relevance. Complete the checklist and enclose it with your other materials in the order indicated on the checklist.

Note: Your completed application must be postmarked by June 15.

*If applicant is currently engaged in an academic term that ends later than the June 15 deadline, complete the application with a transcript of your academic work as of June 15, and alert the Scholarship Committee of the delay of the final transcript for the current academic term. The Scholarship Committee will consider the delay of the final transcript on an individual basis

Date submitted _____

Signature _____

The Tenth Mountain Division Foundation, Inc. wishes you much success in your academic endeavors.