Profile of the Fallen

Specialist Vincent Sebastian Ibarria

Specialist Vincent Sebastian Ibarria passed away during non-combat operations on the 3rd of July 2020 while deployed in support of Operation Freedom's Sentinel in Farah Province, Afghanistan.

The 21-year-old, San Antonio, Texas, native served as a rifleman in Triple Deuce, and despite reporting to the unit less than a year prior he had a reputation for being well liked as both a soldier and a person.

At a small memorial service in country's far-western province, Specialist Ibarria was remembered by his fellow Soldiers of Charlie Company, 2-22 Infantry. Across the world, Triple Deuce held an evening candlelight vigil in his honor on Fort Drum, New York.

His passing was felt across the Triple Deuce, the Warrior Brigade, and the 10th Mountain Division.

No death is ever easy, and the passing of Specialist Ibarria was especially challenging to those who knew him best and who deployed with him. He remains the last 10th Mountain Division Soldier to be lost in Afghanistan.

The Courage Battalion will never forget Vincent.
